20. [REDACTED] Received a call from Werner Brandt on the personal staff of Representative Thomas Foley (D., Wash.). Representative Foley is Chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture. Brandt said that the Chairman thought that it would be a good idea if the members of the committee and several of the staff could be given an overview of the international sugar problem by the Agencies "economic people." Specifically the committee is interested in USSR beets, Eastern Europe beets, Cuban sugar production, and the dealings of major foreign sugar firms. He was interested in setting this up, if possible, around July 10 or 11. He asked about the possibility of an unclassified paper on the international sugar problem to supplement any oral presentation. I told Brandt that I would get back to him on his request.
